The Google Workspace services (hereinafter "GWP services") to be provided under this Order are identified on the Order form. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that it shall only procure, or attempt to procure, GWP services through Woolpert, and that any effort, error, or inadvertence, whether intentional or otherwise, to procure through another provider shall be prohibited, and if accomplished, shall be immediately cured and restored as herein provided to reasonably promote the benefit of the reseller bargain and the terms of this Order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser may, upon prior notification to Woolpert, procure GWP Services directly from Google. This conditional and limited use Order is for the purchase of a perpetual license(s) to specified GWP and does not bestow ownership to the Purchaser with respect to any Google GWP services. The Google Workspace Terms, https://workspace.google.com/terms/premier_terms.html, hereinafter "Google TOS", created by Google for the GWP services, are provided in addition to this Order, and are hereby incorporated by reference. Unless Google expressly agreed otherwise in writing, the Purchaser will accept the Google TOS, with no alteration or amendment, prior to the Purchaser's first log in to the Product (or Woolpert must otherwise receive express authorization from the Purchaser to accept on the Purchaser's behalf). The Google Workspace Terms constitute the license and govern the use of the GWP services. Purchaser is responsible to periodically review GWP terms to ensure compliance with any updates. Actual costs will be based on the Purchaser's usage of each service during the previous calendar month as reported by Google. All charges for the Purchaser's usage will be associated with the Purchaser's Enterprise Billing Account specified on the Order form. The Purchaser is responsible for payment of any sales, services, or similar taxes. If Woolpert is obligated to collect or pay any such taxes, the taxes will be invoiced to the Purchaser, unless the Purchaser provides Woolpert with a valid tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate taxing authority. If the Purchaser is required by law to withhold any taxes from its payments to Woolpert. The Purchaser must provide Woolpert with an official tax receipt or other appropriate documentation to support the withholding.

Term, Invoice Procedures and Payment: Each Order shall comprise of, and Purchaser acknowledges its commitment to, a twelve-month term, which shall automatically renew for twelve months period of time on each anniversary date, unless Purchaser provides Woolpert written notice of its intent to terminate service within sixty (60) days of the initial Term's anniversary or any renewal thereafter. Purchaser shall be subject to Payment of the actual monthly usage amounts. Payment will be administered as follows, per the Purchaser's election of one of two options:

Payment shall be made directly to Woolpert within thirty (30) days of receipt of invoice, using the following payment information:

PO Box 714874

Annual, quarterly, monthly Credit Card Payment: The GWP services used during the previous billing period as reported by Google to Woolpert. Such payment will be administered and accomplished in accordance with Woolpert's credit card payment protocol. By electing this option, the Purchaser agrees to place on file an authorized, issued and valid credit card (inclusive of the account number, effective date, and three-digit or four-digit security access number) that shall stand open and accessible for the duration of any applicable term. The Purchaser acknowledges and authorizes Woolpert to access and charge against the credit card on file for any amounts due and owing. The Purchaser agrees to take all action necessary and required in accordance with its issuing card's agreement. Such terms and conditions will remain standing unless the Purchaser takes written action to cancel and/or change its on-file credit card. Cancellation shall not alleviate the Purchaser from any fees that may be due and owing at the time of cancellation.

Regardless of the foregoing election, if payment for the GWP services is not made within 30 days of the date of the invoice, or in accordance with the credit card described protocol, Woolpert may suspend or terminate the Order without liability and/or may pursue its remedies for collection and the Purchaser agrees to pay all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Woolpert in connection with its collection efforts, regardless of whether legal action is initiated. If the Order is not terminated, the Purchaser hereby acknowledges that unpaid invoices shall accrue interest at 1.5 percent per month in the event that payment in full has not been received within 30 days of the date of the invoice. The Purchaser shall remain responsible for the payment of any fees for GWP services regardless of termination of the Order by Woolpert and Purchaser shall terminate all use of any GWP services until or unless payment is made as provided herein. Termination or suspension of use shall not extend the license period for such GWP services. Woolpert may terminate with respect to any other agreement between Woolpert and the Purchaser or an entity affiliated, related or otherwise partially controlled by the Purchaser, and/or apply funds from one such agreement to this Order or any other agreement on which payment to Woolpert is overdue.
